LYOUD WETZEL JR. MEETS TRAGIC DEATH

Loses Life in Lake Near Bloomington; Leaves
Host of Friends

Antioch and Libertyville residents were deeply shocked and grieved to learn of the tragic death of Lloyed Wetzel, Jr., formerly of Antioch, who lost his life in a small lake near Bloomington Saturday evening, July 21. Lloyed had been enjoying a swim in Lake Challen with his mother, father, brother and several friends, and while the others were dressing, he went for one last plunge from the high dive. He never reappeared on the surface of the water. His body was recovered within five minutes, and an examination revealed that his death was caused by striking some object on the bottom of the lake.

Born in North Dakota

Lloyed Milton Wetzel was born in Bowman, North Dakota, July 16, 1912, the son of Lloyed M. Wetzel Sr., and Elsie Looftbourrow Wetzel. He was graduated from the Antioch Township High School in 1930, and at the time of his death was a junior in the Illinois State Normal University at Normal, Illinois. He attended the Illinois Wesleyan University at Bloomington for a year after his graduation from high school. For two years prior to October, 1933, he was a resident of Libertyville, where he had won a host of friends and been a leader in work with the young people of the Methodist church, building a strong organization around him.

At the funeral services which were held Tuesday afternoon at the Libertyville M. E. Church, a beautiful tribute was paid to his memory by the officiating pastors, Rev. Philip T. Bohl and Rev. Adolph Kral, both former Antioch pastors. They spoke of his unusual promise, his conception of life more mature than his 22 years would indicate, his ambition to fit himself for the ministry and his brilliant mind and nobility of character. Julian Stripe, noted Waukegan tenor, sang several songs, accompanied by Mrs. Lyle Morris at the organ. Among the pallbearers were three of his high school class mates, Howard Mastine, William Nelson and Elmer Baethke of Antioch.

Besides his many friends he leaves to mourn his passing his parents, two younger brothers, William and John; and his fiancée, Miss Mary Eleanor Newsum, of Libertyville.

Writes Letter of Comfort

An insight into Lloyed's character is gained from the following letter which he wrote recently to Mrs. John (Continued on Page 5)

CORN-HOG CONTRACTS SENT TO WASHINGTON

One hundred ninety Lake County Corn-Hog contracts were expressed to Washington on Monday, July 23. A total of this shipment will mean about $45,000.00 to Lake County farmers who signed these contracts.

One hundred ninety-one contracts were presented to the farmers for their final signatures and one hundred ninety of these were signed. The other one will be signed as soon as a ruling has been received from Washington on the procedure.

The office of the Lake County Tuberculosis Association is open for business after being closed for six weeks. Miss Mary Kendall, Executive Secretary of the association, has returned from Peabody College, Nashville, Tenn., where she has been attending summer school.

The July Chest Clinic, sponsored by the association, will be held at St. Theresa Hospital on Tuesday, July 31.

Guernsey at Little Orchard Farm Makes State Champion Record

A cow in the herd of Edwin C. Welch of Antioch has just finished a new official record in the Herd Improvement Class which makes her queen of all Guernseys in her respective class. This animal was bred by A. P. Bean of Vesper, Wisconsin, and is three and one-half year old Linda of Elmwood 294131 with a record of 9553.6 pounds of milk and 530.7 pounds of fat in class DH1.

Antioch Legionnaires Hosts to 8th District

The regular meeting of the Eighth District of the American Legion was held at the Pasadena Gardens Friday evening, the Antioch post acting as host. Preparations were made for the annual picnic to be held Sunday at Highland Park and plans discussed concerning the State Convention to be held in September.

A speech was made by the Legion's national representative at Washington, D. C., who used as his theme "Lest We Forget" and pointed out the work which must be done by the Legion for their veterans lest people forget the sacrifices and deeds of the war heroes.

An unusually fine floor show was presented by Bruno Rojewski for the entertainment of the Legionnaires, after which a Dutch lunch was served.

NO SPECIAL SESSION UNTIL AFTER ELECTION, GOV. HORNER AGREES

Sales and Liquor Tax Considered Adequate to Run State

Gov. Horner has bowed to the wisdom of the Democratic bosses in Chicago and there will be no special session of the legislature before the November election, unless the governor changes his mind and kicks over the political traces.

The Democrats admit that they are afraid of a special session for two reasons, first, that a one per cent tax limitation resolution would be forced through and put on the ballot as a constitutional amendment to be voted on at the fall election, and, second, that the Republicans would take the administration apart and show the voters just what is making the wheels go around. The latter was the deciding factor.

May Extend Sales Tax

That there will be a special session after the fall election is certain. Gov. Horner will try to put through an extension of the sales tax beyond July 1, 1935, the present date of its expiration. He will insist that it be extended as a substitute for the state property tax. The state taxing board must meet before Jan. 1 to fix the tax rate for 1935.

The truth of the matter is that there is no need to extend the sales tax or to levy a property tax for 1935. The state will have enough income without either. There is an excellent opportunity now for a real reduction of the tax burden.

Sales Tax Totals $40,000,000
Sales taxes are being collected at the rate of $3,332,207 a month and are increasing every month. This means a total of $40,000,000 a year. Thus, $20,000,000 would be collected next year before the present sales tax law expires. Liquor taxes are being collected at the rate of $7,500,000 a year.

The six month collection sales taxes next year with the $7,500,000 or more in liquor taxes for 1935, would supply at least $27,500,000 to the state without a property tax. The gross property tax levy for the last ten years it was levied averaged less than $27,000,000 a year and the collections less than $23,000,000 a year. There were no sales or liquor taxes to supplement these property taxes and the Republican administration managed to get along very well on the lesser sum.

If Gov. Horner can't operate the state on the $27,500,000 next year there is something radically wrong— which of course there is.

Lake and McHenry Farm Bureau Teams Are Tied for First

The Farm Bureau baseball teams of Lake and McHenry Counties, having won six games and lost three, are tied for first place in the district with three games yet to be played. Lake will play its next game with Boone Co. at Belvidere Saturday, while McHenry plays DeKalb. The final two games will be played between Lake and McHenry counties August 4 and 11.

Lake County defeated DeKalb County Saturday, 7-4. Those scoring for Lake were Bratzke, Cregmin, Dowell, Zimmerman, Wallace, Wagner and Lewin.

LEGION CONVENTION WILL BE HELD SUNDAY AT HIGHLAND PARK

National Commander Ed
Hayes and State Com.
Kapschull to Speak

Antioch Legionnaires and all members of the Legion Auxiliary are planning to attend the annual convention of the Eighth District Council at Highland Park next Sunday, July 29th, it was announced by local officials of the Antioch Post yesterday.

The place of meeting will be at the Dumaresq Spencer Post hall at 21 North Sheridan Road, Highland Park, and the host post will be the Evan Watkins Post No. 753. Convention of delegates for both the Legion and the Auxiliary is scheduled for 9:30 a. m., on the third floor of the Masonic Hall.

Picnic Lunch at Noon

At 12:15 a basket picnic in family groups will be held at Sunset Park. At 1:45 the Legionnaires will be seen in parade, which will disband at the band shell in the park where the open air meeting will be held. Speakers for this occasion will be National Commander Ed Hayes, and State Commander Charles Kapschull.

In case of rain the speaking will be held in a hall to be named at the convention caucus, Eighth District Commander H. K. Foval announced. Families of Legionnaires and friends of the Legion are invited to attend. Children are welcome and all children will be cared for by child welfare officers of the Legion and Auxiliary, according to Otto S. Klass of Antioch, Chairman of the Child Welfare Department of the Legion.

Chicagoan Runs Car Upholstery Button into Hand

Chicago Driver Receives
Minor Bruises in Collision

A minor accident, quite unique in its kind, occurred Tuesday evening when a Mr. Augustine of Chicago injured his hand while getting into his car. As is natural when getting into a car, he rested his hand on the upholstery and in some manner ran a button from the upholstery into his hand and was unable to free himself.

A companion secured a flashlight from Reeves' Drug Store, and with the aid of Dr. H. F. Beebe, freed the man and treated the wound. Another minor accident occurred Friday at the intersection of Main and Lake streets when Ed Snyder, driving a truck from the Antioch Milling Company collided with a Chicago car, as he turned onto Main from street. The Chicago men, Charles Ganski and Charles Schultz, driving a Studebaker sedan were on the wrong side of the road, and could not be observed from Snyder's truck. Both cars were damaged and Ganski received minor head bruises.

HORTONS ATTEND FUNERAL SERVICES FOR ALFRED HORTON

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Horton and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Horton, who were called to Chelet, Wisconsin, two weeks ago by the illness of Murray Horton's brother, Alfred Horton, returned yesterday.

They attended the funeral services Tuesday for Alfred Horton, who passed away July 21 at the age of 78 years. Mr. Horton was a former Antioch resident. Fuller details concerning his life will be available next week.

NEW POLICY AT GENESEE

Starting Sunday, July 29, the Geneesee theatre, Waukegan, will present five acts of Loop vaudeville each Sunday afternoon and evening, according to announcement made by Manager John Mitchell.

Lake County theatre-goers appreciate good stage talent and Mitchell feels that the new policy bringing the best to the Geneesee stage will meet with successful approval.

Quebec Enlists Farmers In Fight To Improve Its Rural Scenery

After banning unsightly billboards along Quebec's modern highway system, the Quebec provincial government this year encourages farmers to improve the beauties of their rural properties. Inset, the Hon. J. E. Parrot, Minister of Highways, a leader in the movement to improve Quebec's noted scenic landscapes. Other picture shows type of picturesque structures to be seen along highways by tourists visiting fete throughout Quebec this summer marking 400th anniversary of Cartier's discovery.

Week End Drownings Raise Season's Toll

Body of Lake Forest Youth
Recovered by Indian Professionals

Two drownings in County Lakes and one in Twin Lakes, Wis., again boosted the season's death toll from drownings in the lakes region.

The body of James Yore, 21 year old Lake Forest youth, who was drowned at Diamond Lake Sunday, was not recovered until 3:30 early yesterday morning, when the services of two professional searchers from Stillwater, Minn., were employed.

Mrs. Johanna McPhail, 34, of Chicago, lost her life in Bangs Lake near Wauconda Sunday when she waded out beyond her depth and, not being able to swim, sank before rescuers could reach her.

A Kenosha man, Edward Martin Schmidt, 26, was drowned in Twin Lakes Monday evening when he fell from a pier. He was unable to swim to safety, and never reappeared on the surface of the water, according to witnesses. The body was recovered by William Bernhoff of Twin Lakes after a half hour of diving, and brought to shore where resuscitation methods were applied without avail.

Call "Indian" Divers
John Holz of Stillwater, Minn., a professional searcher of Indian descent who was in charge of the search for the body of James Yore, was mysteriously successful in accomplishing his aim.

The methods he used are unknown as he worked a few hours, located the body, then rowed to shore, saying nothing of his discovery except to Chief of Police Clayton Tiffany of Mundelein. Hundreds of curious people lined the banks of Diamond Lake, but they went home when Holz ceased searching.

Holz flipped out chips of wood upon the water from time to time. However, it is believed that the secret of his success was contained in a small package which he took out in the boat. Several years ago when John Jeremy, Indian fisherman from Stillwater, arrived here on a similar errand, a lizard-like animal in a jacket was discovered in the bag.

The body of Maunle Stoinick, Chicago, lost in Crystal Lake for eleven days was discovered Tuesday floating in a corner of the lake. The body was identified as that of Stoinick who was drowned July 13 when he attempted to step from one boat to another.

DR. DEERING LANDS WEEK'S PRIZE BASS

Again the fish are rising to the occasion. Or is it to the fisherman's skill and enticing bait that they rise so nobly?

Doctor David N. Deering claims the summer's honors thus far by landing a four and one-quarter pound black bass early yesterday morning in one of the lakes in this vicinity. He and James Stearns, another enthusiastic fisherman, returned Monday from Nippersink with a three-pound bass, then considered quite a catch.

Bill Beller set last week's record with black bass caught in Lake Marie which tipped the scales at three and three-quarters pounds.

TREVOR STOCK YARDS RECEIVE OVER 3000 CATTLE

Western Cows Forced Off at Trevor by Strike in Chicago Yards

Fifty-five cars of lean western cattle had been unloaded at the Trevor Stock Yards yesterday as a result of the crisis caused in the Chicago stock yards by the striking of the Stock Handlers' Union. Further shipments of cattle to Chicago are being refused because of the drastic situation present there with hundreds of cattle dying from thirst.

Most of the cars received at the Trevor Yards were shipped from South Dakota, while a few came from Minnesota and northern Wisconsin. Nine more were expected yesterday evening from Montana, and more are coming today, according to Manager L. H. Mickle. These cows are being shipped because of shortage of feed, and are being taken over by the federal government which is paying the farmers from four to twenty dollars per head as a further relief measure.

Cows Well-Cared For

Tales being circulated to the effect that thousands of cattle were being dumped at Trevor and were dying of thirst were refuted yesterday by Manager Mickle who estimated that about 2,700 head had been received, only twelve of which died, several of these being dead upon arrival. Other employees at the Soo Line owned Trevor Stockyards estimated the number received to be from 3,000 to 3,500. The cattle are given sufficient feed and plenty of water, bales of short upland hay and alfalfa being received from Bassetts, Wis. According to cattle feeders, hungry cattle respond more quickly if fed the short upland hay at first, rather than heavy alfalfa. Cost of the feed will be discharged by the government.

The Trevor Yards are not filled to capacity, Mickle said, but the cows have to be segregated in separate pens according to towns. Should the strike prove long-continued, the Trevor Yards, if taxed to capacity, could accommodate about 5,000 head. The Yards usually house about a hundred head to be auctioned off at the weekly Thursday sales.

Chicago Conditions Serious

Twenty-five thousand head of cattle at the Chicago yards face death unless the strike is ended or means can be found for watering and feeding them, packers said.

The Live Stock Handlers' Union men were joined Tuesday evening by the Live Stock and Commission Men's Union in striking.

The cattle at Trevor, reported to be gaunt and nearly starved, were found to be actually in fair condition, though thin.

Fire Dept. Called for Grass Fires

The Antioch Volunteer Fire Department has responded to two calls during the past week to prevent grass fires from assuming dangerous proportions. The first occurred Saturday, when a pasture on the Charles Thorn property caught fire, and the department was called to save the forage for the cattle.

A grass fire near cottages in Cepek's Subdivision, Cross Lake, which was endangering the buildings, was put out yesterday about one o'clock by the firemen. The Lake Villa department also was called out yesterday to extinguish a grass fire near Crooked Lake.

Democrats See Wisdom In Choosing Stratton

Downstate and even Chicago Democrats are beginning to see the advisability of electing William J. Stratton state treasurer this fall if for no other reason than the fact that the public will then know what is being done with the tax payers' money. With the Democrats in charge of practically all of the state offices, it is to the interest of everybody except the Democratic machine, to have a Republican in a key spot like the treasurer's office.

Mrs. John Gan and Mrs. Lew Van Patten were Chicago visitors last Thursday.

JIM AND LOU TO MEET AGAIN IN ROUND LAKE

"Winner Take All" Contract Signed by Rivals, White Says

'PEG' PROMOTING STAR CARD FOR AUGUST 3

Lou Plummer and Jim McMillen will meet again August 3, in Renahan's open-air arena at Round Lake, in a return match to settle their dispute for the Lake County heavyweight wrestling championship.

This fact became known yesterday, when matchmaker Les White announced to the press that both McMillen and Plummer has posted forfeits and signed their names to the articles closing the match.

Lou Beaten in First Match

In their first meeting the Antioch star rendered Plummer hors de combat by knocking him through the ropes and out of the ring six times to the ground below, and finally pinning him with a body slam after the Waukeganite was "out on his feet."

It was a wonderful battle and Plummer had McMillen nearly beat several times during the course of their 34 minute match, in fact Waukegan Lou claimed he actually pinned his rival from Antioch twice in the thirty-four minutes but the referee refused to award him the match because he was "out on his feet."

Two Jailbreakers Sentenced to Joliet

Enos and Odenbreit Given
Terms; Three Others
Still at Large

Sentences against John Enos and Henry Odenbreit, two of the five who successfully broke jail at Woodstock, were read Thursday, July 19, by Circuit Judge Edward D. Shurtliff at Woodstock.

Odenbreit was sentenced to serve one to ten years in Joliet penitentiary on a charge of forgery. He pleaded guilty to five counts in a forgery indictment. He also was indicted by the grand jury as a jailbreaker. John Enos pleaded guilty to a charge of bank robbery and was given a term of one year to life in Joliet penitentiary.

Shoots Partner in Wrist

Joe Levonian, companion jailbreaker, returned Friday to his home town, Solon Mills, McHenry county, and shot his ex-partner, Charles Westlake, whom he believes responsible for his indictment. Westlake, partner of a tavern which Levonian was charged with trying to burn down, was shot in the wrist when Levonian shot him about midnight after the village has become quiet. Westlake, anticipating trouble, had armed himself with a revolver, and returned fire on Levonian. However, the jailbreaker made a successful escape in his car.

Two others, Charles Taylor and Ellsworth Fowler, are still at large.

MORE "AMOS," LESS "ANDY"

NEEDED IN GOVERNMENT

One of the laugh-making gags of the famous "Amos 'n' Andy" radio team has been Andy's habit of going in for vast imaginative financial flights, in which he mutters, "One million, two million, five million," and so on, in figuring impossible profits on some fantastic scheme.

Many present-day plans presented to long-suffering citizens and taxpayers by high-pressure politicians, are reminiscent of Andy. The public officials talk of one billion, five billion, or ten billion dollars without regard for the sources from which the money is to come. They issue bonds—and hope that public treasuries will be able to meet them when they fall due. Like Andy, they look forward to a rosy future in which dollars will grow on trees, and budgetary difficulties will be a thing of the past.

It is easy for those who hold comfortable governmental jobs, and are spending money that belongs to someone else, to figure in millions and billions. But the people, like Andy's creditors, are becoming skeptical. They know that political extravagances mean that taxes must soar in the future—they are beginning to realize that it means that businesses and individuals will have less money with which to build factories and homes and employ labor, and buy the articles commerce and agriculture must sell if they are to survive. They begin to understand that money is diverted from productive business when investors are afraid of extortionate taxes and hide their money in tax-free government bonds where it does nothing to keep the machinery of trade in motion.

Too many of us think of those billions as we think of the far planets—they seem to have nothing to do with us. We should think of them as barriers to employment, to industrial expansion, to recovery. It is a historical fact that excessively expensive government is the best ally of depression.

Yes! We do need more "Amos" and less "Andy" in every division of government.

THE PROBLEM OF PLENTY

The Year-Book of Agricultural Cooperation shows a progressive and far sighted spirit when it says: "Our age is witnessing the extraordinary spectacle of a world fleeing from plenty. It is for the cooperative organizations to show that they can face plenty and that their ideal of social justice is a light by which they can deal out plenty with an even hand, so that it neither piles up for want of claimants nor ceases for lack of recompense to those from whose labor it has sprung."

It has often been said that the troubles of the present lie in the fact that the machinery of distribution has been inferior to the machinery of production. There is no lack of people who want wheat, cotton, fruit, dairy products and all the other things our farmers raise—and these people constitute a vast market which the progressive cooperatives are trying to reach. The cooperatives are not seeking to obtain extortionate prices—they are seeking fair prices that will bring the producer a reasonable profit and allow him to sell the maximum amount to the consumer.

The mere routine of buying and selling is among the least of cooperative activities. Cooperatives are great educational institutions, so far as both their members and the public are concerned. They are going forward on firm ground, meeting and grappling with great social and economic problems. And they are making headway.

The World's Fair in Chicago will be over in a few weeks. Then watch the Democratic politicians in Cook county start fighting over who will grab the remains to operate as an amusement park, on public land, for the benefit of a few of those who can horn in. The buildings will not cost them anything and they will probably make a deal for the park land that will result in practically all revenue being profit. The ballyhoo for "a great amusement center on the lake front" is almost due to start.—The Illinois News Bureau.

WHEN GOVERNMENT OWNS

A declaration by the national administration in favor of private ownership and operation would be a stimulant to business generally and would help to restore the confidence of investors, the Illinois Manufacturers' Association says.

The association holds that government ownership is uneconomic and against the public interest. If the government were to take over the railroads "such uneconomic and unwarranted policy would add billions of dollars to the present stupendous and fast-growing public debt."

Consolidation of carriers, however, "should be permitted to develop naturally and logically." In the judgment of the association "public interest would best be served by less, instead of greater, regulation of the railroads."

The association urges "the national administration to publish a definite declaration in opposition to public ownership of common carriers in order that the railroads may be relieved of the uncertainty that now exists and that investors may be encouraged to aid in the financial rehabilitation of transportation agencies now warranted by improving business."

It is strange that a belief persists that there is some probability that the federal government may take over the railroads. Economists are agreed that public ownership and operation of the carriers would not solve the problems, but would add greatly to the burden upon the nation's taxpayers.

Yesterdays

Forty Years Ago
July 19, 1894

The long-continued drouth in this section was broken Thursday afternoon by one of the most severe rain and windstorms that has ever visited our village. Among places wrecked by the wind were the photograph gallery of Barlow, Hatch & Co., on Main street, A. G. Watson's farm implement warehouse, and many fine trees.

A new postoffice was established last week at Channel Lake to be called Channel. It is located at the residence of Charles Smith who is postmaster.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Life" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, July 22.

The Golden Text was, "As the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself" (John 5:26).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live: That thou mayest love the Lord thy God, and that thou mayest obey his voice, and that thou mayest cleave unto him: for he is thy life, and the length of thy days" (Deut. 30:10, 20).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The spiritual fact and the material belief of things are contradictions; but the spiritual is true, and therefore the material must be untrue. Life is not in matter. Therefore it cannot be said to pass out of matter. . . . Because Life is God, Life must be eternal, self-existent. Life is the everlasting I AM, the Being who was and is and shall be, whom nothing can erase" (p. 289, 290).

LLOYD WETZEL, JR., DEAD

E. De Long of Libertyville at the time of the passing of her husband who was pastor of the Methodist Church.

Sunday Evening

Dear Friend:

In union with that other great lover of beauty, John Keats, that other worshipper of loveliness, angelic grace, and sacred peace, does he now live. He, who was ever the gentle guide of those lost in the world, the shining cloud for those seeking the heights, and the mystic oversoul to those who sought beauty and Truth, is now, even more fully identified with that divine force, the Creator.

One said, "In that ye have done these things unto the least of these, ye have done it unto me!" Great is the debt He owes to this man, your loved one, for "unto the least" did he consecrate his lifetime and work. With gentle heart, kindly voice and touch did he bring comfort into innumerable homes to uncountable aching human souls, calming the troubled waters to far greater results than did He who, too, once said "Peace be still."

Into bleak, small human souls has he brought the warmth of tranquillity "the joy of living." Under his influence many of us have found greater life paths, wider horizons, more radiant splendor in the dawn, and a peace-giving, refreshing, serene twilight. It will always be said by those who were blessed with his friendship and nearness that "because he passed my way, the divine again surged through me, and God, a greater God, passed by, very near, and very dear."

To you was given, by the Great One, the supreme joy of sharing years with him. And to you falls the honor of carrying on his work. In the memory of him you have the greatest of all honors—the grandest of all joys, the most delicate of precious loveliness, and an eternal contact with God, the Beautiful, the Lovely, the True, and the Eternal Infinite.

To you I give my deepest friendship and love.

To him I owe much that is finest in me.

In sincerest, dearest, friendly love,

Lloyd Wetzel, Jr.

"Blest citadel of Love that reigns o'er all"

Through vastest stretch of space,

Thine is the peace, and thine to me the call.

And so to all the race.

"For surely in some realm, somewhere,

Our human eyes can't see,

There must, for us, in some great plan,

A perfect beauty be."

S. E. Pollock entertained his sister and her daughter, Mrs. Cora Armstrong and Helen of Beloit last week.

Public Service Employees to Get Wage Boost Aug. 1

Employees of the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois (except officers and higher executives) are to get an increase in wages and salaries on August 1, equal to one-third of the reduction of August 1, 1932. Announcement to this effect was made this week by Britton I. Budd, president.

In making this announcement to employees, Mr. Budd said:

"The reduction in gross revenue that began in 1930 made the pay reductions of 1932 an economic necessity. This pay increase answers the question which has risen in the minds of many employees as to when they might possibly expect any restoration of the 1932 reduction in wages.

"While there has been some improvement in business in general which is reflected in somewhat greater sales of the products of the Company, nevertheless increases in taxes and other operating expenses, and adjustments under the NRA which required an increase in the payroll by a substantial amount, limits the restoration at this time to one-third of the 1932 reduction.

"The pay reductions of 1932 were much less than men and women in almost all other lines of employment suffered, and were not as drastic as might have been justified by the loss of business and earnings of the Company."

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mapleshorpe and children went to Rockton, Ill., to see their son, Jim, who is spending a month on the farm of his uncle, D. E. Powell.

OBSERVE TIMELY GARDEN HINTS FOR BEAUTIFUL BLOOMS

Not too Late to Plant Moss Rose, Foxglove or Canterbury Bell

This oft-cursed drouth is surely working havoc with gardens in the lake region which usually bloom so profusely with just a little encouragement. A healthy garden this season, however, is a real accomplishment worthy of just pride.

What rainfall there is must be conserved carefully by means of cultivating the ground, stirring the soil to keep the ground covered with a loose mulch which prevents growth of weeds. Hoeing is more essential during extended dry spells than during periods of continuous rain.

If one has a vacant space which presents an eyesore, it is not too late to sow moss rose (portulaca) which develops rapidly and blooms brilliantly.

Gardeners say that the time has arrived to start poinsettias for Christmas flowering. Use short side growths. Insert in sand in pots or boxes, and shade with cheese cloth. Sprinkle the tops several times each day to keep them humid. After rooting transplant into small pots.

Prune Roses
After climbing roses have flowered, they may be pruned, although common sense and care must be exercised unless the roses are of the strong Wichuriana hybrids, from which the flowering canes may be removed each season after blooming. When the tuberous begonias and gloxinias are past flowering, the tubers may be gradually dried off by withholding water and given plenty of air. The dried bulbs may be kept in dry sand until next season.

Cosmos, dahlias and chrysanthemums should be pinched back to provide a heavy compact growth, particularly if water is available. Roses, magnolias and other shrubs may be increased by layering and by covering the young shoots with soil to form roots. After the delphinium has flowered, remove the flowering stems back to the foliage and a second blooming will take place.

Perennials such as fox glove and canterbury bell may be sown now. For continued blooming of most annuals, including sweet peas, pansies, and sweet alyssum, it is well to keep all faded flowers picked, and many of the fresh ones.

Eradicate leaf-eating insects with poison spray such as paris green and arsenate of lead.

COLORED TEAM STOPS ACES, 8 TO 2

The dazzling speed and assortment of fast breaking curves of Pitcher Cunningham of the North Chicago All-Star colored team proved too much for the Antioch Aces here Sunday afternoon when the colored lads ran away with the long end of an 8 to 2 score.

All the locals were able to do was to collect 5 hits, one a circuit drive by Bagel. Cunningham whiffed 11 Ace batters. The colored team collected 10 hits off the offerings of Bown in eight innings and one hit off Bagel in one inning.

Next Sunday the Aces will cross bats with the Round Lake Athletics on the home grounds.

Fine Sauces Lend Right Touch To Food

Failures May Be Avoided by Following Tested Recipes

American women have often heard it said, somewhat to their resentment, that Continental cooks produce superior culinary achievements. For cooking a good wholesome meal, the average American cook cannot be surpassed. However, in the matter of those final touches which render certain foreign delicacies so palatable, our native countrywomen are sometimes a little lax.

As a step toward achieving the finished product, one might master the art of sauces seasoned to perfection.

Butter Sauce for Vegetables
1/2 cup butter
2 tablespoons vegetable broth.
Cream the butter until light and fluffy, then add a little of the vegetable broth. Continue beating until the vegetable broth has been added and butter doubled in bulk. Be sure to add the broth slowly or the sauce will lose its fluffiness.

Bernaise Sauce
1/2 cup Hollandaise sauce.
1 tablespoon Tarragon vinegar.
1 small onion, grated
1 tablespoon minced chives
To the Hollandaise sauce add 1 tablespoon butter
2 tablespoons flour
1/2 cup evaporated milk
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper

1/16 teaspoon cayenne
2 egg yolks
1/4 cup butter
1 tablespoon lemon juice.
Prepare a white sauce of a table-spoon of butter, the flour, milk, salt and pepper and cayenne. Remove from fire and stir in beaten egg yolks. Add 1/4 cup butter bit by bit, then the lemon juice.

Hollandaise Sauce
3 egg yolks
1/2 cup butter
1/2 lemon, juice only
1/4 cup boiling water
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper.

Cream butter in a saucepan, add egg yolks one at a time. Place saucepan in another pan containing hot (not boiling) water. Beat, add seasoning and lemon juice, then gradually add the hot water, continue the beating until the mixture is smooth and creamy. Serve at once.

Failures are due almost entirely to cooking the sauce over too hot water, thus causing a separation and curdling of the eggs. Because it is often difficult to judge the degree of heat of water in the lower part of the double boiler the saucepan arrangement has produced a more successful sauce.

Hollandaise sauce made with delicious rich butter, is most tempting when served with asparagus, new green beans, artichokes, new cabbage, cauliflower and broccoli. Its uses, however, are not restricted to service with vegetables only for it makes an exceedingly tempting foundation for a delicious sauce to be served with thick, juicy steak.

Plum Jelly in Three Steps

PLUM jelly, from fully ripe Damson plums, is one of the most delicious that can be made. Champion jelly makers, who win blue ribbons year after year at State Fairs, follow this recipe.

Ripe Plum Jelly
4 cups (2 lbs.) juice
7 1/2 cups (3 3/4 lbs.) sugar
1/2 bottle fruit pectin
To prepare juice, crush thoroughly 4 pounds fully ripe fruit. Do not peel or pit. Add 1 cup water. Bring to a boil, cover, and simmer 10 minutes. Place in jelly cloth or bag; squeeze out juice.

Measure sugar and juice into large saucepan and mix. Bring to a boil over hottest fire and at once add bottled fruit pectin, stirring constantly. Then bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1/2 minute. Remove from fire, skim, pour quickly. Paraffin hot jelly. Makes about 11 glasses (6 fluid ounces each.)

Baked Oranges With the Roast

By Caroline B. King
Home Economics and Culinary Authority

EVERY good cook knows that turkey without cranberry sauce is just a plain disappointment to the whole family, and almost every good cook knows the old adage about serving apple sauce with roast goose. Very good rules are these, too, for not only does the acid of the fruit add much to the savory flavor of the meat, but it also aids materially in the digestion of a rich dinner as well.

Why not, then, a fruit dish with other roasts or chops? Baked oranges for instance with duck or chicken or with a simple but appetizing crisp, crusted leg of lamb or loin of veal? No reason whatever why the combination would not be perfectly delicious and very good for the health's sake. And indeed it is just that!

Baked Oranges, fragrant as a bouquet, make wonderful additions to the menu and are easily prepared. First the oranges, which should if possible be of the seedless variety, are washed and put over the fire whole in just enough boiling water to cover them. Then they are boiled until tender but not broken, when they are lifted out of the liquid and set aside.

Next a syrup is made, using the orange liquid with twice its quantity of granulated sugar. Boil until thick as cream; then cool. The oranges are then halved crosswise, seeds if present removed. Each is dipped in the thick syrup. When well covered all over the surface, the halves are placed in the pan around the roasting lamb—or duck, or chicken or whatever has been selected for dinner—which is nearly done, of course, for the oranges require only a short time in the oven. It is well to baste them occasionally with the remainder of the syrup, for this will produce a glazed appearance which is very attractive. When finished place the roast on a warm platter and arrange the orange halves around it with sprays of cress or parsley between them. Make gravy of the liquid in the pan and for added zest stir in 1/4 cup of the syrup in which the oranges were cooked, or the same amount of orange juice.

State Ford Dealers See World's Fair

Approximately 400 Ford dealers, salesmen and their families from the Chicago Branch of the Ford Motor Company are shown above in the rotunda of the huge Ford Exposition Building on the grounds of A Century of Progress, Chicago, where they were guests for one day of the Ford Motor Company. The group, representing parts of Illinois, Indiana and Iowa, attended a luncheon on the Fair grounds at which W. C. Cowling, general sales manager of the Ford Company, was the principal speaker. Following the luncheon, the dealers spent the remainder of the day inspecting the huge Ford Exposition and other exhibits of the 1934 World's Fair.

Household Hints

Melted paraffin poured over the top of a can of paint will prevent its hardening. When can of paint is again desired the coating of paraffin can be readily removed.

An old nut pick will remove a cork so small that a corkscrew would tear it to bits, punches holes in all sifting cans, unties hard knots, cleans seams in milk pails, removes clogged particles from the food grinder, and picks out cherries or pickles from a bottle neck too small for a fork—and other household uses innumerable.

ADJUDICATION NOTICE

cause McMillen had so many friends in the crowd.

Waukegan Lou Shows Wares
On the last card at Round Lake, Lou wrestled like a world's champion and, pinned Dick Raines, a powerful Texan star, in less than twenty minutes. After McMillen, who also was on the card, won his match over Sol Slagel, Plummer jumped into the ring and made a speech in which he offered to beat the Antioch star twice in one hour or give his entire end of the purse to McMillen.

The matchmaker started at once to sign the pair and McMillen finally consented to a bout under those terms. Promoter "Peggy" Behning, who rents the arena from George Renahan, has obtained the permission of the Illinois Athletic Commission for the match under these rules.

Will Pin Jim Twice in Hour (?)
The match will be on one hour time limit. In that time Plummer must pin McMillen twice for the required count of three seconds. If Lou fails to accomplish this task he will lose the match and McMillen will receive his own as well as Plummer's end of the purse.

Plummer is demanding a referee other than Charlie Lavine, who was the third man in the ring at their first meeting, but it will be up to promoter Behning to choose the official of the Illinois Boxing and Wrestling Commission.

Plummer made an offer to cover any side wager that McMillen might wish to make on the outcome of their impending battle.

Other Stars on Card
Due to the large crowds that were present at the first two Round Lake matches, the matchmaker is now able to secure the bigger and better stars of maddam for this card.

So far he has signed three outstanding topnotchers who are very popular all over the country. Jack Smith, Postle's Health Club star will probably appear on the semi-windup. Tommy Marvin, Oklahoma Indian who has been campaigning for a world's championship match will also have a place on the card as will Dick Raines, the burly Texan who went down in defeat at the hands of Plummer on the last card.

Opponents for these greats have not yet been selected but White has hopes of securing good men for opponents so as to provide a well balanced card a week from Friday.

CHOOSING FOODS WISELY

By ADELAIDE SPOHN, Ph. D.

Nutritionist of the Elizabeth McCormick Memorial Fund and Director of Nutrition Service, Illinois Emergency Relief Commission.

Food Sense Saves Food Dollars

We have reason to believe that proper nutrition is the most important single factor in the maintenance of good health. It behooves us therefore in this present situation when economy has become the watchword of the times, to apply the pruning shears with discrimination. To provide adequate nutrition, the diet of a family must furnish enough carbohydrates, fats and proteins to yield the standard energy needs of the various members of the family group. In interest of economy, we must make these the carriers of the other dietary essentials: first, sufficient proteins of good quality for growth and maintenance of body tissues; second, enough of the essential mineral elements; and third, enough of each of the necessary vitamins.

During the World War, when food saving and economy became necessary, Miss Lucy Gillett, of the New York Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor, gave the following advice: Divide your money into fifths and spend one-fifth, more or less, for fruits and vegetables; one-fifth or more for milk and cheese; one-fifth or less for meat, fish and eggs; one-fifth or more for bread and cereals; one-fifth or less for fats and sugars and other groceries. This is still good advice. Many families on restricted incomes would live more economically, and at the same time eat more healthful food, if this plan were followed. If further retrenchment is necessary, this should not be effected by reducing the amount of milk in the diet. The expenditure for milk may well amount to one-third of the week's food budget, and somewhat more than one-fifth should be spent for fruits and vegetables.

Cereals, the cheapest source of energy, if well chosen, may also supply some of the important minerals and vitamins and should not be reduced. The saving should take place rather in the other two food groups, namely, meat and fish, and fats and sugar.

The following guide for meal planning should prove helpful:

Every Day.
Milk, a pint for each adult and 1/2 pint for each child.
Breads and cereals, such as corn meal, oatmeal, wheat cereals, rice.
Oranges or canned tomatoes especially for children.
Potatoes.
Another vegetable, fresh or canned.
Two or three times a week this vegetable should be a green one, such as spinach, cabbage, turnip tops, string beans.

Two to Four Times a Week.
A fruit, dried or fresh.
Dried beans or peas.
Eggs, especially for children.
Meat, fish or cheese.

No matter what scheme is followed in planning well balanced diets, milk is of paramount importance and should be given first consideration. It should never be omitted from the diet, no matter how limited the budget may be. The ideal allowance is a quart of milk for every child and for the pregnant and nursing mother. Every one should have at least a pint of milk each day.

Cereals and breads, of necessity, make up the bulk of a low-cost diet. Some whole grain cereals, such as oatmeal, whole wheat cereal and brown rice, should be included, since they are particularly rich in vitamin B, in phosphorus and iron.

Fruits and vegetables are the third essential group of foods. The citrus fruits head the list in importance and should be used generously when they are cheap. Fortunately when this is not the case, tomato juice, either canned or fresh, may take their place in the diet as a valuable source of Vitamin C. Only fruits and vegetables in season should be chosen. Apples may be bought at a low price during most of the year. Bananas are often cheap and when properly ripened, are an excellent food, even for children. The dried fruits, especially prunes, apricots, peaches and black figs should be used generously. They are cheap and an excellent source of iron. Potatoes should be used at least once a day or even more often in extremely low-cost diets. At least one other vegetable should be provided each day.

OATS SOWN WITH ALFALFA LESSEN EROSION DAMAGE

Urbana, Ill., July 26. Damage from dust storms, which proved so devastating to young alfalfa in sections of Illinois this spring, can be practically eliminated if oats is sown as a nurse crop with the new alfalfa seedlings this fall, says C. H. Farnham, assistant in soil experiment fields at the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois.

Largely as a result of the poor stands of forage caused by the drouth this spring and the provisions of the AAA programs in which some 125,000 or more Illinois farmers are co-operating, it is anticipated that an exceptionally large acreage of alfalfa will be seeded throughout the state during the next six weeks. An appreciable amount of these seedlings will be on sandy or light wind-blown soils which are subject to wind erosion capable of ruining seedlings made during the latter part of the summer.

Tests at the Oquawka soil experiment field, maintained in Henderson county by the U. of I. College of Agriculture, show that this damage may be largely done away with by the use of oats as a combination nurse and cover crop for fall-seeded alfalfa in sandy land, points out Farnham. Observations made at the Oquawka field this spring disclosed no damage to alfalfa seeded last fall where surrounded by good oats growth. However, a few feet away where no oats had grown the alfalfa was either badly damaged or entirely killed by the wind-blown sand. In a larger unprotected area on the field, sand had drifted several inches deep, completely burying a strip of bluegrass.

In addition to prevent the movement of the soil by high winds, oats sown as a nurse crop with alfalfa this fall supplies at least three other advantages. Grasshoppers prefer the oats to the young alfalfa plants and thus are not so likely to feed upon the legume, oats is less of a competitive companion for the alfalfa than weeds would be and oats aids in protecting the alfalfa against the winter cold.
